

When all the world was sleeping

Start by curling up on the floor or crouching like you're in the Dark Cave with Jesus.

When all the world was sleeping and the sun had gone to bed . . .

up jumped Lord Jesus jump up with hands in the air and this is what he said: hands out, palms up

'I am risen, risen, risen, wave hands high in the air

I have won us a new start! Rolypoly sign to show the stone rolling away above head
